Frequently asked questions

How many books can I take at a time?

The number of books that you can keep with you at a time depends on the security deposit you pay. The total price of all the books you keep should be within the security deposit paid by you. That being said, loyal members (who pay their dues on time and maintains good relationship with us) are entitled to take more books than what is allowed.

When should I pay monthly fee?

You are supposed to top off your account regularly before dues are accumulated. Services are not offered if there is any dues on your account.

Can I bring others with us to the library who are not members of LetUsRead?

Yes, you can. However, in order to borrow books, they must become a member. Other services can be used using pay-on-time plan.

Can I switch from one plan to another?

Yes you can. When a plan is upgraded all the remaining plan amount will be forfeited. A plan switch is always accompanied by an immediate monthly payment of the new scheme.

Can I discontinue at any time?

Yes you can. Any unused plan amount remains for a year and forfeited thereafter.

Can I take a break and rejoin later?

Yes you can. But if you join back after your monthly cycle is completed, the monthly fee according to your plan will be immediately due. This is true even if you have unused plan balance.

Can the books be delivered anywhere?

We can deliver only within Trivandrum city limits. Outside the city limits we may be able to deliver for a delivery fee. We can also ship books to any place in Kerala provided member bear the shipping expenses.

Can I visit the library to pick-up books?

Yes you can. However, please call us before coming.

How much is the late fee?

2% of the price of the book is charged every day as late fees until the book is returned or renewed. If other members are waiting for the book, you may not be allowed to renew the book.

Please refer our terms & conditions for answers to most of your questions. If you still have questions, feel free to contact us.
